CAUSE

During an office visit on October 24, 2008, the probation officer observed that the offender's right hand was injured. Upon questioning, Mr. Georeno claimed that he accidentally cut his hand while slicing fruit. Upon further questioning, the offender admitted that he was injured in an altercation with his girlfriend on or about October 19, 2008, at her home in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. According to Mr. Georeno, during this incident his girlfriend, Jacklynn Brennan, threatened him with a knife. The offender states that as he was disarming her he sustained the wound which required 13 stitches to close. Mr. Georeno did not report this incident to the police. It is noted that two children under 10 years of age were reportedly present in the home at the time of this altercation. Ms. Brennan is the offenders ex-girlfriend, and they have one child together, Anthony, age 4. The offender reported he was visiting Anthony when this incident occurred. Given that there were two previous incidents on June 12, 2004, and March 8, 2008, between the offender and Ms. Brennan, Mr. Georeno was prohibited by the probation office from further contact with Ms. Brennan without the approval of the probation office. As a standard condition of Supervised Release, Mr. Georeno was also prohibited from leaving the District of New Jersey without permission. On October 24, 2008, Mr. Georeno acknowledged that over the past month he had been traveling weekly to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and had contact with Ms. Brennan.

The Philadelphia Police Department and the Philadelphia Department of Human Services were immediately contacted and are currently investigating the foregoing altercation. We will keep your honor apprised of developments as they occur. In the meantime, the added condition will serve to enhance the offenders accountability to this office.

Respectfully submitted,

By: Evan M. Dorfman
U.S. Probation Officer
